

Weston Primary School

Dear all

Welcome back and I hope you all had a restful half term. It's been a busy return to school this week and with only 45 days until Christmas, preparations have begun for our Christmas performances. Information regarding tickets will be out next week.

Year 2 had a visit from some owls on Tuesday and learnt a lot of interesting facts about them. Our school councillors will be laying our school wreath at the cenotaph on Sunday for Remembrance Day.

Have a lovely weekend

Christmas Jumper Fridays starting on 1st December

Every Friday throughout December children can come to school wearing a Christmas jumper instead of the school jumper!

To help raise funds for our Christmas party day and House day we are asking for a VOLUNTARY fine of 50p-£2 for children to wear jumpers

Year 2 had a visit from some owls on Tuesday. Lisa brought in 4 different owls and allowed the children to hold them. Year 2 learnt a lot of interesting facts about owls.

Year 2 took part in the BEBRAS Computing Challenge today and they all did amazing. They completed the challenges with a partner and soled lots of tricky tasks well done!

WELL DONE!

Congratulations to reception on having the highest weekly attendance at 99.3%
